

Reuse of Course Content

In an effort to reach the most people we can with the content of this course, we have licensed it with a Creative Commons license. Creative Commons (or CC) is a mechanism by which copyright holders can give advanced explicit permission(s) as to how their work may be used. Specifically, we license the course with the Creative Commons license agreement for non-commercial use, meaning all original content created for this course is licensed CC-BY-NC 4.0.

Below is a general summary of the license, but is not a substitute for the full details of the license (link for full license: <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/4.0/legalcode>).

You are free to:

- Share — copy and redistribute the material in any medium or format
- Adapt — remix, transform, and build upon the material for any purpose, even commercially

As long as you:

- Provide attribution — You must give appropriate credit, provide a link to the license, and indicate if changes were made. You may do so in any reasonable manner, but not in any way that suggests the licensor endorses you or your use.
- Non-Commercial — You may not use the material for commercial purposes (intended for commercial advantage or monetary compensation).

To provide attribution, the creators of this course can be listed as Applying and Leading Assessment in Student Affairs MOOC with a link to Student Affairs Assessment Leaders' website (<http://studentaffairsassessment.org/online-open-course>).
